OPENING De'Sean Quinn, Commission Chair

Chair Quinn called the meeting to order at 10:00 AM

Lacey Ledford conducted a roll call of the Commissioners. A quorum was present.

Chair Quinn announced that this meeting was being hosted in person due to the end in the Governor's emergency proclamation. Chair Quinn expressed his gratitude to the Commissioners for being present.

Chair Quinn introduced and welcomed Commissioner Kaholokula and Commissioner Barnes to the Commission.

Chair Quinn asked Attorney General Justin Kato and Assistant Attorney General Taryn Jones to further speak on the Governor's Proclamation. Representative Attorney General Justin Kato stated that once emergency declarations end, open public meetings must go back to in-person. Remote meetings are only allowed when emergency declarations are in place.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Monica Alexander, Executive Director

Director Alexander updated the commission that graduations are happening frequently. Director Alexander expressed her thanks to Commander Gill and his team for helping conduct graduation and check in new recruits. Director Alexander also expressed her thanks to the Communication Manager and her team for continuing to livestream during graduations.

House Bill 1586

Director Alexander expressed her concern for the legislation concerning House Bill 1586. Director Alexander stated that the bill would bring a work group to WSCJTC. She then expressed that her main concern aligns with comments she has previously made over a lack of allotted time. Director Alexander went into detail concerning requirements that included formulating the workgroup, the hiring process of someone to facilitate said work group, and a report written for the governor and legislature. Director Alexander stated that completing these requirements within the limited timeline is not realistic or feasible. Director Alexander also noted that some workgroup members will be participating in addition to their day jobs. This will require flexibility in terms of scheduling workgroup meetings. Director Alexander clarified that WSCJTC is willing to complete this work but would like the proper amount of time to do so correctly.

Regional Academy Opening

Director Alexander updated the Commission on the decision to open a regional academy in Pasco. Director Alexander noted Commissioner Roske's work to speed line the opening process due to a current academy waitlist of 236 people. Each class is limited to 30 people. Subsequently, the current academy wait time is 9 months. Director Alexander expressed her concern, noting that officers are unable to work until they receive certification, while still being paid by the agency that hired them. Director Alexander reminded the Commission that it was asked of them to move the opening from the end of July to May 1st in hopes of opening a second regional academy within the year. Director Alexander expressed the importance of regional academies while noting the long-term intention of having academies for people to attend near their homes. Director Alexander then announced that the Pasco ribbon cutting ceremony will be held on May 3rd at 2:00 pm. She noted that Governor Inslee, Senator Lovick, and several other legislators will be in attendance. Director Alexander extended an open invitation to the Commissioners.

WSCJTC Updates

Director Alexander stated that WSCJTC is currently working on obtaining a new facility. Director Alexander explained that the current facility lacks infrastructure to hold hybrid classes and extend accessibility for all of WSCJTC's functions, including Commission meetings. Director Alexander provided context with an example that if a commissioner wanted to attend the meeting online, they would have the ability to watch a livestream, but not participate because of a lack of resources. Director Alexander stated that she informed the Office of Financial Management and the Department of Enterprise Services of her intention to move into a new building by 2025. She expressed the need for a new facility that will provide the space for the amount of classes being held. Director Alexander then expressed her thanks to Deputy Director Wills for providing further information on how WSCJTC should be functioning.

Director Alexander then informed the Commission that WSCJTC is currently working on a job task analysis of officers after they leave the academy. The intention is to assess how their basic training has impacted their work.

Director Alexander expressed her thanks to the Commission and staff for all of their hard work. Director Alexander opened the floor for questions.

Commissioner Thomas inquired about the policies that would allow someone to graduate from the academy with a record similar to that of Timothy Rankine. Commissioner Thomas expressed her concern over graduating officers purely based on academics and asked for details on the other policies in place.

Director Alexander responded that the academy has dismissed officers for other reasons apart from academics. Director Alexander clarified that CJTC does not fire or hire officers. They are sent back to their agency, and in some circumstances, said officers will not be allowed to come back. Other times, CJTC has allowed officers to reapply after a 2-year period where their application is then reassessed. Depending on the offense, officers may be allowed to reapply sooner. Director Alexander added that there are officers dismissed due to academics – such as failing classes or failing three or more tests. Director Alexander then offered to share information concerning the process for dismissal.

Concerning the Pursuit Policy, Commissioner Kendricks asked what a reasonable time frame for completion would be. Director Alexander explained that if the policy was received by July 2023, the study could be completed and reported back to the legislators by July 2024. Director Alexander noted that this would leave time for discussion concerning the policy before the start of legislation in January 2025.

Commissioner Logue referred to Commissioner Thomas' inquiry and expressed his concern. He gave an example of instructor(s), who are seasoned officers, stating someone should not be an officer in a formal memo to a department. Commissioner Logue stated that although the academy does not hire or fire officers, the academy has the power to not certify officers when instructors express their concern. Commissioner Logue asked for verification on a specific process in place that ensures instructor concern is taken into account, even if an officer is succeeding academically.

Director Alexander ensured that she listens to the TAC officers and Commander who are frank about officer progress. When instructors express concern about an officer, the process of sending them back to their agency begins. Once again, Director Alexander stated that she will send the Commission the documentation concerning the process and requirements of an officer's reapplication after dismissal. Director Alexander stated that although she cannot speak to what happened before she got to CJTC, she can offer information on how the process is currently being conducted.

Commissioner Thomas asked for clarification on if an officer who is sent back to their agency cannot work as a police officer until they graduate from the academy. Director Alexander confirmed the statement.

Commissioner Robinson expressed his concern on whether the academy is providing training and services to help officers that are struggling in certain areas of training. Commissioner Robinson added that if an officer's struggle is mitigatable and caught early on, support can and should be provided.

Director Alexander responded that the process of dismissal being discussed is for individuals who are not fit to be officers. Director Alexander stated that the academy ensures skills are taught during their grading and constant assessment. She then noted that if an officer shows a lack of morals and competence while under constant supervision at CJTC, then action must be taken.

Commissioner Robinson expressed his thanks.

Director Alexander stated that the process of trainee dismissal begins once the TAC officer, Commander, or anyone involved in training brings up a concern. Once an officer is sent back to their agency, depending on the offense, they are allowed to reapply. Director Alexander confirmed that the process is formal and documented. Director Alexander stated that the academy understands the potential lawsuits dismissals bring. This encourages further documentation of the process.

Commissioner Logue inquired about what would happen if a lawsuit concerning an officer's dismissal is lost.

Representative Attorney General Justin Kato clarified that this has happened in the past. He stated that as a result of CJTC losing the lawsuit, the officer had been placed back into the academy.

Commissioner Logue asked if there would be a way for the Commission to receive updates on the current lawsuit concerning dismissal. Director Alexander agreed to the request.

Commissioner Logue asked if the Commission could play a role in confirming and participating in dismissal decisions. Director Alexander responded that moving forward, the Commission may support the decisions. Director Alexander stated that considering CJTC has the most understanding and information on the matter, they must do what they believe is best for the profession and the community.

CERTIFICATION REPORT

Chad Arceneaux, Assistant Director of Certifications

Chad Arceneaux provided a recap on last year's ending numbers. Last year, the certification division received 1,867 agency reports. He defined agency reports as "any report required under RCW 43-101 and 135." Chad Arceneaux provided context that considering the current staffing of one manager dedicated to said section, the agency report number is large. He then clarified that agency reports do not simply reflect misconduct. They range from retirements, uses of force, and canine deployments that do not necessarily include misconduct – to instances of sexual assault that would invoke authority of an investigation under 43-101-105. Of the agency reports, 86 of them were notices of separation that related to officer misconduct. Other reports that have potential misconduct were 47. There were 166 third party citizen complaints received through the portal or any other written form. There were 9 investigations from the division itself. There were 34 matters where there was a lack of jurisdiction. Chad Arceneaux then stated that last year, of the misconduct related matters, 57 resulted in decline. There were 31 referred to the attorney general's office. There were 12 out of 20 officers who had their certifications revoked based on investigations.

This year, there have been 242 reports as of the end of February. Of those, there have been four notices of separation for misconduct. There have been 55 reports of potential misconduct. 16 complaints of potential misconduct. Four self-initiated investigations. Nine matters they received that there was no jurisdiction for. Four matters referred to the attorney general's office. 12 matters were filed and five matters that resulted in officers losing their certification thus far this year.

Chad Arceneaux stated that there is an effort to alleviate current staffing issues. There are five certification investigation officers and one person for the operations unit. Chad Arceneaux informed the Commission that Certifications is trying to at least recruit a temporary person to help in that department. As of the end of last month there have been 168 cases pending investigator assignment and 86 open and active investigations. This means that before the fifth person was added, it was a caseload ratio of about 20 cases per investigator. Other large agencies cover 3-6 cases per caseload. Chad Arceneaux stated that their case load is very high in comparison to their counterparts in other law enforcement agencies. The same can be said for the number of investigators that we have. While the recommendation of the industry is one investigator per 100 sworn officers, we are at one investigator per 2,600 officers. Two short-term independent contracted investigators are currently assisting with backlog cases.

Commissioner Joseph inquired if it was possible to get a copy of the plan for the backlogs. Chad Arceneaux responded that there is not a written document. He added that the investigators are bound to follow the priority framework that was created in collaboration with community stakeholders. Prioritization policy dictates which cases are addressed first. Chad Arceneaux then stated that to address the issue, they've sought to work with independent contractors who are not bound by the same restrictions.

Commissioner Joseph inquired if it was possible to receive a copy of the report. Chad Arceneaux agreed to send the report.

Commissioner Pickup inquired if there were circumstances that would ignite an immediate decertification process. Commissioner Pickup mentioned an example of officers convicted of rape who have been fired from their agencies but still hold certification.

Chad Arceneaux responded that people who have been convicted will have their certification revoked. He stated that the main issue is a lack of staff and therefore lack of people able to process those documents.

Commissioner Pickup clarified if that meant there was no one able to conduct the desertification process. Commissioner Pickup expressed her concern for this, considering the severity of the matter.

Chad Arceneaux expressed his agreement of the serious matter. He clarified that because there are only five investigators, they are trying to work within the priority policy they've been given. Chad Arceneaux then stated that regardless of documented desertification, convicted felons cannot be police officers. He added that the priority is to process decertification of people with misconduct who are allowed to work until the process is complete.

Commissioner Logue inquired if Certifications had vacancies in their department. Chad Arceneaux responded that they are technically at maximum staffing, which means legiltati0on would need to be changed to continue hiring.

Commissioner Logue inquired if the findings are published for the public. Chad Arceneaux responded that the database is open on the certifications webpage.

Chad Arceneaux responded to an inquiry from Commissioner Johnson that the reporting agencies are diligently trying to comply. Currently, Certifications does not know if agencies are compliant with 135's reporting requirements. Chad Arceneaux stated that Certifications is working with the state auditor's office to create a statewide program to see if agencies are reporting and doing so accurately. The goal is to implement said program by the summer of this year. Until the program launches, Certifications is trying to educate agencies about their responsibility and duty concerning this.

Commissioner Thomas stated that she was recently contacted by a citizen with a complaint. Commissioner Thomas read the public comment that she had received from a citizen about an officer who had received multiple complaints over the span of ten years including multiple incidents of excessive force.

Chad Arceneaux acknowledged that the allegations stated in the public comment are concerning. He then stated that if there are complaints that relate to a specific case, he cannot speak on any active investigation with the Commission. Commissioner Thomas expressed her severe concern with the public comment. Chad Arceneaux stated that assuming this is an active case, unfortunately, he cannot speak to this.

Chair Quinn inserted himself to facilitate the conversation. Chair Quinn stated that public comments concerning such issues could be sent to any of the Commissioners. He then opened the issue by inquiring about contextual pieces that can help the Commission better understand how to approach such a topic.

Commissioner Robinson expressed that he believes this points to a need for more time. Commissioner Robinson proposed that the Commission set up the time, space, and resources available to the commission to address this.

Chair Quinn added that meetings do not have to be in person. He then expressed the importance of letting staff respond to these issues, because it might get at the root of the information needed. Chair Quinn suggested an initial step to track the questions that were articulated and get a recommendation from staff on how to proceed afterward before directly going into a meeting.

Director Alexander stated that a lack of resources is a large part of the issue. She expressed her concern for overworking staff who are conducting the cases and are aware of the importance of this work. Director Alexander noted that without the resources to conduct these investigations, the problem can not be solved.

Commissioner Thomas inquired about how the lack of resources will be addressed. Director Alexander responded that it is addressed through legislative process.

Chair Quinn stated that a byproduct of people speaking up when they see misconduct is an increase in case loads. He expressed that the Commission has an obligation to make sure we understand and advocate holistically for additional resources and first understand the depth of the problems.

Commissioner Thomas inquired if the Commission as a body, has the authority to go to the government with these issues.

Director Alexander stated that since the Commission works for the governor, the Commission must advocate for resources while the Governor's budget is being allocated. Formal submissions of needs to financial management and our budget office will need to happen early on for them to be met.

Chair Quinn called for break at 11:42 Chair Quinn called the meeting back to order at 11:53

Chair Quinn called for a consensus to alter the agenda. The first request was to extend the agenda for 30 minutes. The second request was to move Variants and Canine up as the next agenda items, while tabling the IIT Best Practices. Commissioner Kendricks moved to approve the agenda adjustment. Commissioner Kaholokula seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

VARIANCE

Mike Devine, Certifications Division Manager

Variance application from the Tulalip Tribal Police Department by Chief Sutter and Officer Bruner.

They requested variance to wave his certification reinstatement with permission for him to attend the state equivalency academy. Mike Devine stated that the Certifications Division reviewed the application, and he does meet the requirements.

Chief Sutter thanked the Commission for the consideration of his request for variance. Chief Sutter spoke to Officer Bruner's law enforcement career as Chief of police for five years at the Neah Bay Police Department. Chief Sutter noted Officer Bruner's 22 years of law enforcement experience and qualifications.

Officer Sutter introduced himself to the Commission and described his 22 years of experience as an officer.

Currently, two active members represent the interests of WSPCA, two active members represent the interests of the Pacific Northwest Law Enforcement Canine Association, two active Canine professionals representing the interests of unaffiliated associations, and one to two CEO-level law enforcement professionals.

Asking for an additional community member and a commission member on the panel. Mike Devine stated to notify Operations Manager Valerie Weaver if interested.

WASHINGTON STATE CRIMINAL JUSTICE TRAINING COMMISSION

TO:	WSCJTC Commissioners	STIC
FROM:	Jennifer Pendray, Coroner/Medical Examiner Program Manager & WSCJTC WAC Rules Coordinator, Derek Zable	THE
SUBJECT:	Establishing WAC 139-27: Medicolegal Forensic Investigation Training and Certification	eg WA
DATE:	June 1, 2023

Hello Commissioners,

The development of WAC 139-27 for RCW 43.101.480 was necessary to provide structure and guidelines for the development, delivery, and maintenance of the tenants of RCW 43.101.480. This is a new certification program outside of criminal justice professionals that currently exists therefore new protocols must be established.

I.Definitions - WAC 139-27-010

Most definitions used are typical within the industry, however there are two notable definitions to inform you about:

• Good standing was defined to ensure certificants maintain ethical conduct required for practice in the field and legally defensible work products.

• Part-time was defined to assure the WSCJTC can track and hold agencies to the 18-month certification requirement for part-time employees.

II.Notice of Hire/Separation – WAC 139-27-020

The commission must track both the county and individual certification compliance therefore a notice of hire and a notice of separation requirement is necessary.

III.Certification - WAC 139-27-030

RCW 43.101.480(4)(a) requires the WSCJTC to meet the recommendations of the National Commission on Forensic Science (NCFS) certification and accreditation. Those recommendations include written examination, supervised practice, continuing education, recertification procedures, adherence to a code of ethics, and effective disciplinary procedures. This WAC was drafted to include a certification and recertification process for the Washington state medicolegal forensic death investigation certification. Beyond these recommendations, the draft language also includes a revocation process that utilizes other licensing agencies and employer information to minimize WSCJTC time and costs to maintain accurate tracking and compliance. WSCJTC Commissioners Page 2 June 1, 2023

IV. Continuing Education – WAC 139-27-040

RCW 43.101.480(4)(a) establishes the requirement of continuing education. Continuing education courses approved by various agencies, including the American Board of Medicolegal Death Investigators (ABMDI) and the American Board of Pathology (ABP) will be used to ensure that quality education and training is being obtained by mandated practitioners. The number of continuing education hours was drafted to reflect the industry standards maintained by ABMDI and ABP which require 45 hours over 5 years, and 70 hours over 2 years, respectively.

V.Recertification - WAC 139-27-050 & WAC 139-27-060

Per the requirements of RCW 43.101.480(4)(a), recertification procedures were drafted for the certification program, primarily to establish and track continuing education requirements. The certification duration before recertification was drafted to meet industry standards and allow for practicability when considering staffing concerns across the state.

A six-month period to complete or rectify missing eligibility requirements will be given to those applying for recertification. The expiration of the current certificate will be delayed during those six months so the agency will not be in non-compliance.

VI.Core Curriculum - WAC 139-27-070

The core medicolegal forensic death investigation curriculum was drafted as a standard for all future training sessions and for those seeking exemption to reference. This curriculum was established using the Internal Association of Coroners and Medical Examiners (IACME) basic curriculum and standards used in the field.

VII. Training Exemption – WAC 139-27-100 & WAC 139-27-110

As we are certifying two different groups of professionals, there are two exemption processes:

1. To seek exemption from the basic training, medical examiners must be a boardcertified forensic pathologist by the ABP and maintain all licenses, which include continuing education requirements. Medical examiners must also be in good standing at their agency of employment. The majority of medical examiners will be exempt from attending the WSCJTC training due to their extensive education and continuing education requirements.

2. To seek exemption from the basic training, coroners and medicolegal investigative personnel must be employed by a Washington State coroner's or medical examiner's office for a minimum of 12 months for a full-time employee or 18 months for a part-time employee. They must be certified by the ABMDI. Coroners and medicolegal investigative personnel must be in good standing at their agency of employment.

These requirements not only meet industry standards but also meet the standards of required accreditation per RCW 36.24.210. An exemption granted under this section does not exempt the individual from recertification requirements. These requirements will also ensure that mandated personnel are keeping up to date with industry standards and protocols.

VIII.Modifying WAC 139-03-030 - Request for exemption, waiver, extension, or variance. The WAC 139-03-030 needs updated to allow for specific cases in the state who are the exceptions to current industry standards to seek certification through a variance. Rules cannot be established to allow for these specific cases and still comply with the RCW in a consistent manner.

CJTC EXECUTIVE STAFF

I have been a canine handler with the Clark County Sheriff's Office for 6 years. I was assigned K9 Gus upon initial selection for the unit and was assigned K9 Riggs following Gus' retirement in 2020. Both these dogs were certified to the WAC standard as well as the WSPCA standard for patrol and narcotics functions.

In fall of 2021 I attended the Utah POST Training Academy in Sandy, UT as an instructor. This course consisted of more than 320 hours of instruction on various training techniques and philosophies. During the class, I assisted in the training of 23 dog teams to the Utah POST standard, all of which certified at the completion of the course. Canine Riggs was also certified to the Utah POST Standard.

I am currently assigned as the K9 Master Trainer for the Clark County Sheriff's Office K9 Unit.

To Whom it May Concern,

RE: Application for Certified Canine Evaluator

This letter is reference Sergeant Tracy Gay's application to become a certified WSCJTC Canine Evaluator. Sergeant Gay is currently one of our department's canine handlers and has nearly 20 years of experience in the canine field. Sergeant Gay works as a patrol sergeant and oversees our canine program as the canine supervisor and trainer. Sergeant Gay is currently assigned PSD Behr; which is his second dog with our department. After reviewing Sergeant Gay's application to become a WSJCTC Canine Evaluator, I am pleased to say he has the full support of the Grays Harbor County Sheriff's Office along with the understating he will be working on department time to fulfill the obligations of a Canine Evaluator.

Sincerely,

DARRIN E. WALLACE, Sheriff Grays Harbor County

Bv

Jason Weeker, Chief Criminal Deputy

Grays Harbor County Sheriff's Office

DARRIN E. WALLACE, Sheriff

To whom it may concern,

I am submitting this letter to you for the purpose of satisfying the requirements for the application of WSCJTC Certified Canine Evaluator.

I am currently employed with the Grays Harbor County Sheriff's Office as a patrol sergeant. I am in good standing and in compliance with all mandated training. I have approximately twelve years experience as a patrol dog handler (generalist), and I am currently working a second dog. I currently supervise the GHSO K-9 program as well as the Firearms-Force Training Unit. I am a certified trainer with WSPCA (patrol dog-generalist).

I have attended training and received certifications in the following areas that would be applicable for this position:1999BLEA2000-PresentFirearms Instructor-Handgun, Patrol Rifle, Shotgun, etc. (WSCJTC & NRA)2000-PresentWIGCHTCL to the Database

- 2002 WSCJTC Instructor Development
- 2002 Field Training Officer
- 2002 Expandable Baton Instructor
- 2014 Defensive Tactics Instructor
- 2012-Present APCA-Patrol Dog Certification WSCJTC Patrol Dog Certification
 - WSPCA Patrol Dog Certification-Master Handler-Trainer (Generalist)
- 2019 First Level Supervision

I have attended numerous seminars & advanced canine training hosted by WSPCA and other canine groups. I have attended additional training in the area of canine selection, handler selection, canine supervisor, liability and use of force relating to canine. In 2020, I was selected to represent WASPC and participated in the WSCJTC canine model policy process.

As a trainer, I put great emphasis in the force component in all training and ensure that there is a full understanding and working knowledge of the WSCJTC model policy, individual department policy and case law as it relates to deploying the canine. I fully understand that the future of the canine program in Washington, as we know it, hinges on three important areas:

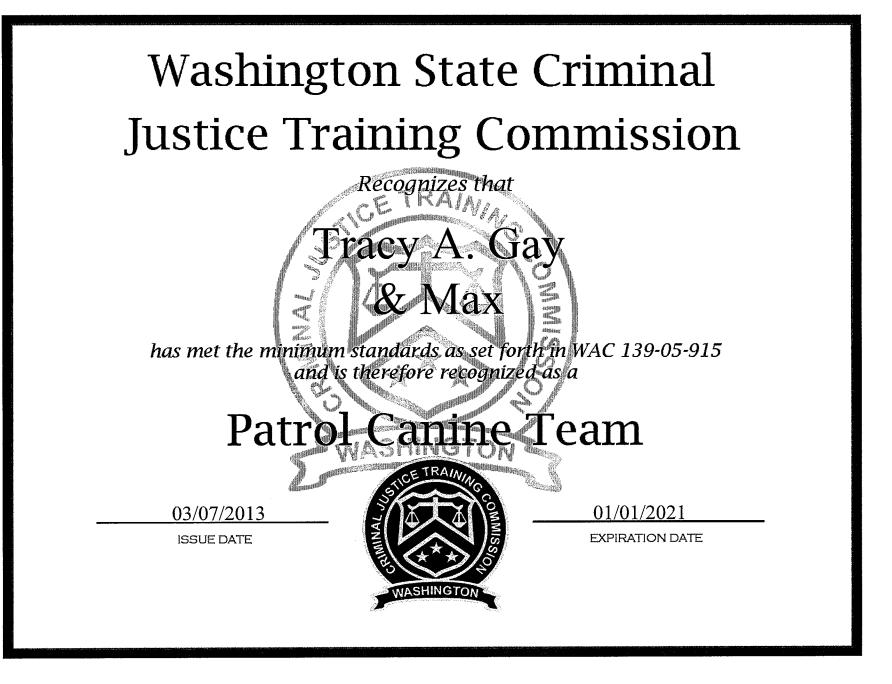

- 1. Handler and dog selection;
- 2. Consistent training with a qualified trainer;
- 3. Proper supervision (manage training & UOF/bite ratio).

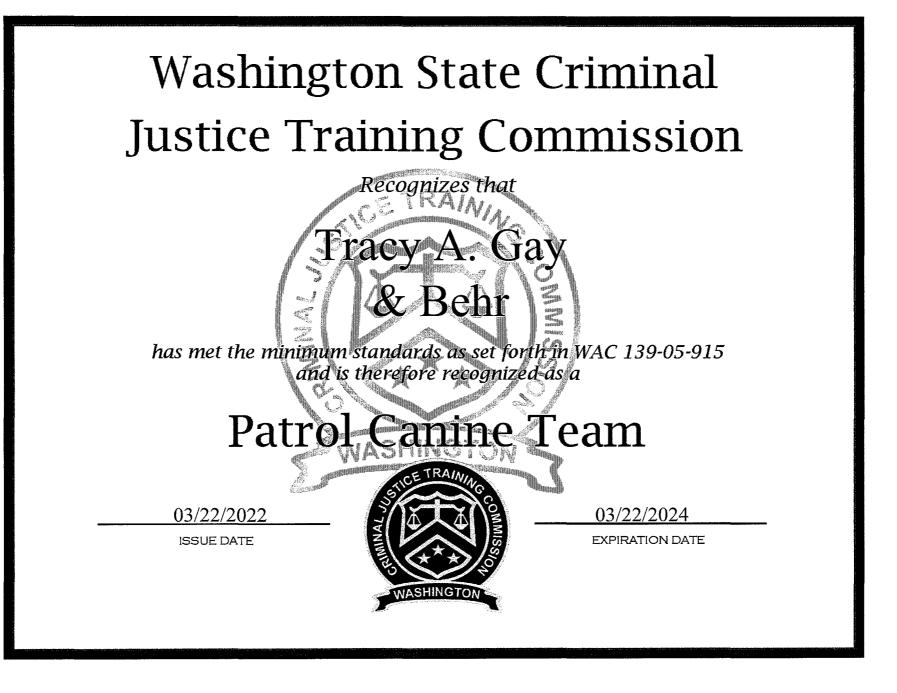

I believe I meet the requirements established under WAC 139-05-915, and I formally request that I be accepted as a WSCJTC canine evaluator.

Respectfully submitted,

RE: Application for Certified Canine Evaluator

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter to express my interest in becoming a WAC Certified Canine Evaluator. I have been employed by the Anacortes Police Department and a fully commissioned Washington State Certified Peace Officer since 2015. I was assigned as our K9 Handler (Narcotics Detection) in 2018 and graduated the Department of Corrections K9 Academy in March of 2019. Since then, I have been in compliance with all mandated CJTC trainings and routinely participated in required K9 maintenance training.

In April of 2018, I completed a Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission Instructor Development class. In September of 2022, I received my Narcotic Detection Dog Trainer certificate through the Washington State Police Canine Association (WSPCA).

I have routinely certified as a Narcotic Detection Canine Team through WSPCA and WAC since becoming a handler. My last WAC Narcotic Detection certification was done on March 30th, 2022. I have received, and submitted, a letter from my home agency supporting my application as an evaluator for CJTC to certify teams.

I have submitted a resume with the required information as well as training certificates for the criteria listed for this application.

Sincerely,

se Hatita

Dear Coordinating Manager,

My name is Corwin Ray Scott, I am a lifelong Washington State resident. My desire to help people led me to create a nonprofit agency in 2011 that works with frontline community members returning from prison, facing racial inequity, experiencing homelessness, unemployment, race and social justice issues, mental health issues and substance abuse. As an elected Precinct Committee Officer in the 29th LD, at times I juggle multiple relationships with constituents, elected officials, and others not involved in the political machine to ensure that everyone has a voice and a chance to speak. This work continues as a member, former co-lead, of the Interagency Workgroup at the Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT) This is a coalition of 11 state agencies to implement the HEAL Act. This demonstrates my ability to manage complex relationships to meet legislative goals.

I lead with inclusion and diversity in my work because I have been excluded in the past from important decisions made in my community. I support and help build Community Based Organizations that are present and serve front line communities. I furthered this work by participating in three phases of a community survey project created by the Tacoma Public Library (TPL). TPL started a feasibility study concerning the closures of two library branches in Person of Color communities. I hit the street to meet with front line community members to get their thoughts on the closures and how bringing the branches back would improve their communities. There were in-person and online sessions and then provided compensation for participants. Afterwards, I compiled the data and sent it to a consulting firm.

Working with underrepresented communities has been my passion and something that evolves as the years go by. I understand that the needs change and so should the services and how we reach people. A good portion of my work has included assessments, surveys and community outreach to gain data that can make change.

I am the co-founder of a nonprofit company called QUAD C. This is an anti-racist/DEI consulting firm that is helping to dismantle systemic racism within community and government agencies. We are just wrapping up a contract with Workforce Development that we provided surveys and listening sessions to community members of low-income Tacoma neighborhoods. I am the executive director of the Evergreen Empowerment Group. In this role, I have negotiated contracts with for profit, non-profit and local government. I have led projects and partnered with other agencies to lead projects that benefit the South Sound community.

I am currently the Community Consultant for the Equity in Planning Project between the Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT) and the University of Washington. In this role, I am advising the two entities about how to communicate with frontline communities, if compensation should be made available, which communities to reach out to and by which methods. I act as the racial equity expert by way of Title VI, limited English proficiency and language access for WSDOT. In this role, I also investigate alleged civil rights issues, train WSDOT staff members and created a Title VI, Environmental Justice and Limited English Proficiency training that is mandatory for all new and current employees. I am a member of the Interagency Workgroup with 10 other state agencies to implement the HEAL Act of Washington State. I have been called upon to participate in other racial equity projects for WSDOT.

Act as a community facilitator to reach underrepresented, and overburdened communities. I helped create a DEI template plan for companies that are seeking to understand racial diversity, inclusion and how to dismantle systemic racism. The company has successfully completed a contract with Workforce Central that included community listening sessions, facilitation and outreach. To round out the contract with Workforce Central, we had to create a high level report that listed demographics (race, age, gender), statistical data (numbers of participants and number of engagements), and profiles of facilitators.
