

EMOTIONAL SURVIVAL FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

Presented by Dr. Kevin Gilmartin

Hosted by Spokane Police Department

"I have been through Dr. Gilmartin's Emotional Survival training at least twice in my career and I found his lessons on surviving a law enforcement career the most valuable tool to my success and emotional survival both professionally and personally. . . This book should be required reading for all new police officers and their loved ones."

Douglas L. Bartosh

*Chief of Police and Director of Public Safety
Scottsdale, Arizona (EmotionalSurvival.com)*

The lessons learned and taught about Emotional Survival need to be taught in every class of new recruits and to every officer working. The need to do so is great. We as a profession need to consider emotional survival as a part of officer survival."

Gary Schofield

*Captain, Training Bureau
Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department (EmotionalSurvival.com)*

Friday, November 19th, 2021

8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

Location: Westgate Christian Church

7111 N. Nine Mile Road, Spokane, WA 99208

Cost of Attendance will be $75.00 per person. Register early, outside agency registration limited to 100 people. Law Enforcement and their spouses are welcomed. Spokane Police Department registration fee is waived.

To reserve your seat and process attendance fee, please call: (509)742-8100