

PIO Training

for First Responders

Attendees will learn:

- How to develop effective talking points, written statements and other press materials
- What to do in a crisis
- Best practices for responding to the media
- On camera practical training
- Social media dos and don'ts

The D&L Public Information Officer (PIO) training program is designed to provide first responders with the knowledge and skills to support proper decision-making by delivering the right message, to the right people, at the right time.

Training is conducted by broadcast journalist and media relations professional, Lou Desmond. Desmond has more than 25 years' experience in PR and has worked with many first responder organizations.
