

Training: Human Trafficking Laws & Investigations for Law Enforcement and Prosecutors

Two-day FREE training provided by local, state and federal experts in the area of human trafficking, designed for all experience levels. Training will cover:

- Washington State's Anti-Trafficking Laws
  - Investigation of Sex Trafficking Cases
  - Adjudication of Sex Trafficking Cases
  - Interdisciplinary Coordination
- Cultural Competency and Diverse Populations Impacted

Thursday March 14 – Friday March 15
8:00 - 5:00 pm, Richland

STOP grant funding may be used to cover staff time & per diem for law enforcement personnel. Please contact your local STOP grant administrator if you have questions.

To Register: Human Trafficking Laws & Investigations Training: Richland March 14-15

Questions Contact:

Stephanie Pratt, Victims of Crime Program Manager
360-764-0748, stephanie.pratt@commerce.wa.gov
Office of Crime Victims Advocacy

This training is for Law Enforcement and Prosecutors ONLY.