THIS AGREEMENT is made and entered into by and between the WASHINGTON STATE CRIMINAL JUSTICE TRAINING COMMISSION ("Commission") and the Nisqually Indian Tribe, ("Tribal Agency"), an Indian Tribe recognized by the United States, subject to the requirements of Chapter 39.34 RCW.

Pursuant to RCW 43.101.157, the Tribal Agency is voluntarily requesting certification for their police officers by the Commission.

THEREFORE, IT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS AGREEMENT to state and clarify the obligations of the Tribal Agency and its law enforcement officers for compliance with the requirements of the Commission concerning the granting, denying, and revoking certification of tribal peace officers. By entering into this agreement, the Tribal Agency agrees to comply with the requirements of peace officer certification as set forth Chapter 43.101 RCW, Chapter 139-06 WAC, and any other laws and regulations governing peace office certification in the State of Washington. The Tribal Agency agrees to provide the Commission with notification and all information to enforce the revocation of peace officer certification granted through this agreement, as described in RCW 43.101.135.

The Commission agrees to maintain certification records for tribal law enforcement officers of the Tribal Agency, and recognize tribal law enforcement officers of that agency as "certified tribal law enforcement officers". The Commission will not grant certification to individual officers, outside the scope of this agreement. Officers requesting certification must seek such recognition through their agency.

The Tribal Agency will be responsible for all costs of training related to certification pursuant to RCW 43.101.230.

The Commission will be responsible for the maintenance of the records and for the administration of all requisite actions for granting, denying, or revoking tribal peace officer certification.

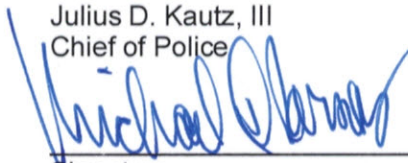

The Commission and the Tribal Agency agree that no real property will be acquired, maintained, or disposed of, as a result of this agreement.

This agreement shall remain in effect until such time as the Tribal Agency voluntarily withdraws its participation or until the Commission withdraws from this agreement due to any lack of cooperation with the terms of the agreement by the Tribal Agency. Any appeal from such action of the Commission will be made to the Executive Director of the Commission or his/her designee, who will exercise their discretion.
